MEXICO FOR THE MEXICANS

Anti-American Feeling in the Next Door Republic that May Culminate in a Revolution

El Paso, Texas, August 25.—Reports from reliable sources in Mexico show that the situation in that country is more serious than at any time since Diaz has occupied the presidential chair.

All of the northern states of the republic are in a ferment as a result of the excitement over the presidential campaign, and the strong hand of the Diaz government is the only thing that has so far prevented an armed uprising.

The Mexican government is rushing all of the available troops to the disturbed region, and the federal authorities hope by this means to overawe the opposition and prevent a revolution from gaining headway.

General Reyes, who is a candidate for vice president against Corral, the administration candidate, is practically a prisoner in his mountain retreat. He is completely surrounded by troops loyal to Diaz.

Reyes is the idol of his people in his section, and there is where the danger lies. If the leader comes forward a revolution of formidable proportions will be launched in short order.

The real reason why there is such a bitter contest over the vice presidency of the republic is the feeling abroad in the country that Diaz will not live through another term, and the man chosen for vice president will succeed to the presidency. Diaz is an old man, and he himself, it is said, doubts if he will live through another term. This explains why he is throwing all his support to Corral.

A feature of the campaign that is causing American uneasiness is the opposition to foreigners and foreign interests in Mexico. The facts in regard to the anti-foreign feeling have not been reported from the City of Mexico, because the Mexican government exercises such a rigid censorship over the news that the newspaper correspondents at the capital dare not send it out.

Large bodies of federal troops have been sent into the states along the border within the past four days. Extraordinary precautions are being taken along the border by Mexican officials to prevent the importation of arms and ammunition from the United States.

CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLD

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold by all dealers.

CRAZED BY COCAINE

Arkansas Negro Caused a Wild Riot in a Louisiana Town

Monroe, La., Aug. 25.—Half crazed by whisky or cocaine, Bill Way, a negro from Pine Bluff, Ark., dashed down the main street of this city yesterday with a double-barrelled shotgun, firing in all directions.

Several citizens returned the fire of the negro and he finally fell dead, after receiving a score of wounds.

When the negro fell his body was dragged to the public square and burned in the presence of a crowd of several thousand.

Twenty-one citizens were more or less seriously wounded in the fight. Four of the people injured by the negro's shots are in a serious condition.

SOLDIER BALKS DEATH PLOT

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran, of Kemp, Tex., that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 178 pounds." For severe colds, obstinate coughs, hemorrhages, asthma, and to prevent pneumonia, it's unrivaled. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

DIXIELAND BUILDINGS AND PROPERTY DESTROYED

A Fifty-Thousand Dollar Fire in the South Jacksonville Place of Amusement

(Jacksonville Metropolis, 24th.)

Flames of unknown origin, fanned by a stiff east wind, swept through the grounds of Dixieland's Park on the south side of the St. Johns river this morning, destroying buildings valued at between $50,000 and $60,000. The loss is a total one, investigation showing that there was no insurance on the structures, built entirely of wood. Volunteer fire fighters, together with the steamer from the central fire station in Jacksonville, and a squad of firemen headed by Chief Haney, saved the pleasure park from total destruction. Dixie theater, the skating rink, Bentley's restaurant and other smaller buildings were not damaged.

The fire started in the grounds of the Florida Midwinter Fair, just across the roadway leading from the ferry slip to South Jacksonville, and was first noted in the building originally constructed for Roltair's flying automobile, and occupied during the last fair by Mundy's Trained Animals. This building was unoccupied, and the fire might have started there from a lighted cigarette or cigar stump cast aside carelessly, probably by some tramp who used the building as sleeping quarters. From this building the flames spread to the Booster's club, next adjoining to the south, and then, fanned by the strong wind, crossed the roadway and carried destruction before them to the west, burning a path several hundred feet wide through the park.

Was Never a Success

Dixieland Park was opened early in March, 1907, and after the first few weeks has not been a financial success. For the past year the park has been practically closed, although some of the concessions continued to exist with a scanty patronage.

ICE! ICE!

Buy Ice From Red Wagons

They say, but if you will examine carefully the ice which melts so rapidly you will note that there seems to be holes in it, that the center is what is called "snow ice," which, being porous, allows it to melt quickly.

"Crystal Ice"

The kind we turn out is as clear and perfect as it is possible to make ice, and is the most economical ice to use. Ask the man on the Red Wagon to stop and see you.

DREADFUL MARINE DISASTER

Three Hundred Lives Lost in a Collision Between Two Excursion Steamers Off Montevideo

Buenos Aires, August 25.—Between two and three hundred excursionists on board a German vessel are believed to have lost their lives yesterday when the vessel was run down and sunk at the entrance of Montevideo harbor by another excursion steamer, the Colombia. A great fete is in progress in Montevideo, thousands going there. The Colombia, heavily freighted with excursionists from Buenos Ayres, met the German vessel at the mouth of the harbor. It is understood both tried to make port first, misunderstanding the signal given and the Colombia crashed into the German vessel which filled rapidly. A panic prevented the launching of the lifeboats and there was also a panic on the Colombia. By the time the Colombia's lifeboats were put out the German vessel had gone to the bottom. Among the few rescued was the Captain of the German vessel, who, it is reported, tried to kill himself on board the Colombia after being rescued. It is reported that during the panic several passengers on the Colombia leaped overboard and were drowned.

NEGRO WASN'T TO BLAME

But he had to Leave Brooksville to Escape Vengeance of Salter's Relatives

Brooksville, August 25.—The negro fireman who was running the Tampa Northern engine that killed A. L. Salter last Friday morning, was arrested and brought before Justice E. K. Whidden Saturday and the trial continued until 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Justice Whidden was of the opinion that the accident was unavoidable and discharged the negro.

When the negro was acquitted Mrs. Salter and her daughter borrowed a Smith & Wesson revolver from a friend and would probably have done harm to the negro if he had not been warned of their intention and made his escape, leaving town for good. The deputy sheriff, with the assistance of R. L. Bracy, took the revolver from Mrs. Salter and her daughter, after Mr. Bracy had been very badly bitten by Miss Salter.

A FLORIDA WEED

The Kissimmee Valley Gazette says: L. A. Minx and Co. have on exhibition in their show window a weed that before it was cut measured twenty-seven feet high and six feet around its base, and the person who brought it here stated that a man weighing 160 pounds had climbed up the limbs to a distance of fourteen feet.

The weed was only an eight weeks' growth, and grew in a muck corn field about forty miles west of this city, the field producing seventy-five bushels of corn to the acre.

There seems to be no limit to the size or amount of vegetation the rich muck lands of this state will produce, for on numerous occasions specimens of vegetables, fruits and field crops have been brought to Kissimmee that are so far and beyond in size any ever seen in other states. It is always with a feeling of apprehension we mention them, as the statements are universally doubted by our readers in other states.

A HORRIBLE FIND

When a 14-foot shark, caught in Pensacola Bay Saturday was cut up, its stomach was found to contain the backbone, two ribs and portions of the skull of a man.

It is the general belief along the water front that these bones are the remains of a fisherman, who fell overboard from a schooner in Pensacola harbor several days ago.

A school of sharks were following the schooner at the time and the man disappeared from sight as soon as he struck the water.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults.
